

LS Youth Travel Basketball Playing Time Policy

The foundational building blocks of the LS Youth Basketball Travel league is to develop competitive players while focusing on growing their skill set throughout the course of the regular season. In order to be competitive and grow as a player, all players need to play in each game and be active participants at practices.